

SCHWARTZMAN vs. CATANIA*

David Schwartzman opposes the Fenty/Rhee assault on our schools and communities.

David Schwartzman says millionaires should pay their fair share, while providing tax relief for working people.

David Schwartzman supports the "Ban the Box" campaign to restore full human rights to returning citizens.

David Schwartzman calls for reduced Metro fares for students.

David Schwartzman refuses corporate bribery and supports public funding of political campaigns.

David Schwartzman represents the DC Statehood Green Party, whose 2008 Presidential candidate was the sole supporter of gay marriage.

David Catania supported Fenty and Rhee's mass layoffs of teachers and the closing of neighborhood schools.

David Catania opposed even a tiny (.4%) increase in income taxes on the wealthy, instead favoring massive budget cuts for low income residents.

David Catania opposes laws that protect people with criminal records from unfair discrimination.

David Catania wants to punish parents if their kids don't show up at school.

David Catania takes tens of thousands of dollars in corporate campaign contributions, and gets a second salary of $120,000/year from OpenBand LLC (M.C. Dean), a DC government vendor.

David Catania is a "former" Republican who raised $80,000 for George Bush's 2000 presidential campaign.

*For documentation: www.davidschwartzman.com